1. The quartermaster warehouses of the 4th Military District are located on ul. Poznanska, about 500 meters from ul. Legnica, just beyond the PaFaWag school in Wroclaw (Breslau). Streetcar number 13 or 5 stops nearby.
2. The quartermaster warehouses consist of eight identical buildings, located in an area 400 by 300 meters. The buildings are two story, red brick, and 50 by 16 meters in size. The buildings were formerly built by the Germans and only two were damaged. These were rebuilt in 1948. The various items stored in the buildings are as follows: all types of uniforms, blankets, boots, overcoats, linen, material for officers' uniforms, soap, cigarettes, etc.
3. A wall 2.5 meters high, with a triple line of wire on top, faces ul. Poznanska. The remaining three sides of the area are enclosed with an iron fence. At night the warehouses are guarded by four sentries patrolling the area and one sentry posted at the entrance at ul. Poznanska. In the day time there is only one guard patrolling the area and one guard posted at the entrance.
